ADJUDICATOR: DAVID COOKE BA (hons), BMus (hons), ALCM

David sings and plays the trombone, keyboards, and various early wind instruments. As a teenager David was a member of the National Youth Orchestra, and later went on to study music at Liverpool university.

David especially enjoys being involved in performances of medieval, renaissance and baroque music. But he has a particular affection for vocal music and now spends much of his time working with choirs and also arranging music for them to perform.

He is presently the Musical Director of the Chess Valley Male Voice Choir, the Wycombe Philharmonic Choir and Orchestra, the Damon Singers, the Chiltern Hundreds Bach Choir and Chorleywood Chamber Orchestra. He has supervised the music for stage productions, and has conducted several operas, most recently a production of Handel's 'Semele' for Aylesbury Opera Group.

Whichever ensemble he is working with, David is keen to explore lesser known but good quality music of all periods, as well as the better known repertoire.

David is adjudicating the Bailey Murphy Music Festival for the second time. We welcome him back to WHS and hope he has a hugely enjoyable day.
